LQAF'S 26th YEAR IN REVIEW

La Quinta Arts Foundation's value to the community continues to grow as we are able to successfully deliver innovative programs reaching expanded audiences. Developing new community partnerships and expanding relationships with long time supporters such as The City of La Quinta further entrenched LQAF as the go-to resource for all things cultural in the City of La Quinta. LQAF's 2007/2008 activities demonstrated continuity and evolution of mission services expected from an organization with a history as old as the City itself.

SilverScreen at SilverRock - Saturday, September 29, 2007

- Community Partners: SilverRock Resort, Trader Joe's, Lappert's Ice Cream, Larsen Golf Cars

A "sold out" evening of cinema under the stars at La Quinta's SilverRock Resort opened LQAF's 26th season. The evening included a putting contest hosted by Lumpy's, a "summer buffet" catered by SilverRock Resort, raffle prizes, and the highlight of the evening, an outdoor screening of the venue appropriate, "Caddyshack." Free popcorn and other cool treats, courtesy of Trader Joe's and Lappert's Ice Cream in La Quinta were available throughout the evening.

Paid Attendance: 125

Art Under the Umbrellas at Old Town – Six Saturdays, 10 am to 4 pm

November 24, January 5, January 19, February 2, February 16, April 12

- Community Partner: Old Town La Quinta

The popularity of Art Under the Umbrellas reached new heights in 2008, with each event in the six show series presenting 50-70 artists exhibiting their artwork in booths lining the closed off streets of Old Town La Quinta. Live music, art demonstrations, and wine tasting added to the "Umbrella Show" experience of this free public event.

Blues, Brews & BBQ – Saturday, November 3, 2007

- Premier Sponsor: The City of La Quinta
- Community Partners: Old Town La Quinta, Heimark Distributing, Beer Hunter, Backstreet Brewing Company, Trader Joe's, Henry's Farmers Market, La Quinta Rotary

Estimated attendance at this inaugural one day event in Old Town La Quinta was 6,000. A sanctioned BBQ contest, sampling, live music, microbrew beers appointed the day. Admission was free.

Backstreet Brewery, The Beer Hunter, and La Quinta Rotary's selection of microbrews were big hits, while Trader Joe's La Quinta poured microbrew root beer and Henry's Market served up thousands of donated grilled ears of corn to accompany the BBQ fare, which completely sold out!

In a BBQ Cook-off sanctioned by the California BBQ Association, BBQ teams competed for prize money and points towards a national championship. Attendees purchased samples and plates of authentic barbeque (pork ribs, beef brisket, chicken, and pulled pork) prepared by the professional grilling teams and then voted for the winner of the "People's Choice Award."

"Reckless Driver," one of Southern California's top bands, took the stage for three sets as the event's featured entertainment. Preceding their show, radio station KPLM 106.1 did a live remote broadcast from 11 am to 1 pm.

Over 20 community organizations were present to showcase their goods and services to the public, including fire protection and law enforcement who participated in the amateur cook-off. Old Town retailers reported that the event brought a heightened level of foot traffic through their stores during the day.

La Quinta Arts Festival #26

March 13-16, 2008

It was repeatedly stated La Quinta Arts Festival 2008 was the “best festival ever presented by LQAF.” Artist sales from the 238 participating artists again sailed over the $2 million mark. Given the state of the economy, to have achieved increased attendance and art sales demonstrates LQAF’s increased marketing efforts were effective. A new partnership was formed with the City of Cathedral City to make their Art in Public Places purchases at La Quinta Arts Festival a perennial occasion. This first year, their expenditures totaled over $38,000.

A sampling of 36% of the total purchaser’s addresses indicates 35.62% of purchasers hailed from other US States and Canada, while 64.38% listed California residences. Of those who listed California as their residence, 42% came from outside of the Coachella Valley, and 58% were from throughout the Coachella Valley and high desert. This data indicates La Quinta Arts Festival is achieving the dual purpose of attracting visitors to La Quinta in addition to being a high quality cultural resource within the community.

Festival Entertainment

The entertainment line-up for Festival 2008 was structured to provide Festive goers an additional element that did not detract from the prime focus of the day – viewing and purchasing art! All of the performers chosen were proven favorites of past Festival patrons: Dragon Knights (Friday & Saturday), Malcom Watson, the Barefoot Dancing Violinist; Hawaiian musical legend Bill Keale; Wolf’s Robe, the Flute Man; and Oscar Reynolds of Karamantra Music.

La Quinta Arts Festival 2008 Awards Reception

Festival 2008’s opening night reception, hosted by LQAF board and staff members, was held on the Civic Center Amphitheatre lawn from 5:30 to 7:00 pm. A wide selection of hors d’oeuvres and entrees was catered by our Featured Festival Restaurant Sponsors (see Sponsor page), plus Peachy Canyon Winery wines, and Stella Artois. Along with the Festival Artists, special invitees to the Awards Reception were LQAF Friends and Patron Members, and dignitaries from the City of La Quinta and City of Cathedral City.

Included in the sponsorship Southwest Art donated a 1/3 page four-color ad to the Best of Show award winner. La Quinta Arts Festival was given a link on their website and LQAF events were listed under the magazine's What's Happening in California and Best of the West sections. Southwest Arts also provided 1,500 copies of the March issue to distribute to Festival art patrons.

The docents, in a team approach with the classroom teacher, also present special hands-on projects that incorporate the techniques and methods used by the master artists spotlighted in the program.

During 2007/08 La Quinta Arts Foundation brought this program to 26 fourth grade classes (780 students) and 29 fifth grade classrooms (870 students) in the following schools within the Coachella Valley Unified School District (CVUSD) and the Desert Sands Unified School District (DSUSD):
